

VISITS NEW YORK

MISS. A. ENOS ENJOYS TWO MONTHS' SOJOURN IN EMPIRE STATE

Mrs. A. Enos of 119 1/2 N. Brand arrived at home Monday from a two months' visit in New York state. She visited a brother in Brooklyn, a sister in Albany and other relatives, as well as old friends, in Troy, Cohoes and other cities. It was her first visit to the Empire State since she left it eight years ago to come to California. While she was glad to look upon the old familiar scenes and visit her dear ones, she says she could not be induced to live there again. The season is very backward there as the cold hung on so long and the snow was very slow in melting. All through the East and Middle West this condition prevails, she says, but not so markedly as in New York.

Mrs. Enos said she visited some of the historic battlefields of Revolutionary times, such as Saratoga, Stillwater and Bemis Heights, also beautiful Cohoes Falls, near the junction of the Mohawk and Hudson Rivers. The trip over the desert stretches traversed by the Santa Fe was very pleasant as it rained both of the two last days of her journey. The greatest drawback to traveling now, Mrs. Enos says, is the crowded condition of the trains. She says she offered a fellow passenger, a lady, $5.00 to change berths with her so she could have a lower, but was refused. Every berth on the train was taken and also in the second section, and most of the passengers were on their way to California.

CLUB SECURES INSURANCE MONEY

The Board of Directors of the Tuesday Afternoon Club passed a vote of thanks to Calvin Whiting a few days ago because of his efficient services in securing for the club an insurance claim of $200 on a picture owned by the organization and insured, which had been presented to the club by Mr. Fox and his wife. It was in the custody of Mrs. John Robert White and was destroyed when her home was burned.

MR. AND MRS. BEAMON LONELY

Mrs. A. M. Beamon of North Maryland is in receipt of a letter from her nephew, Charles DuBois, announcing the safe arrival of himself and George Stanley at Kingsbury where they are planning to work this summer, either in the fruit packing house of George's uncle or on a ranch. Gertrude DuBois left Sunday morning for Long Beach to spend the summer there with her grandparents. Her little cousin, Charles Beamon, is also there for two weeks and Mr. and Mrs. Beamon are finding their home quite lonely with all the youngsters away. Miss DuBois is today entertaining the art club, of which she is a member and which is directed by Miss Mueller. Mrs. DuBois is assisting her granddaughter and the club members are likely to have a very good time.

FINAL RECKONING

EVANGELIST PROUT DISCOURSES ON GOD'S LOVE, MERCY AND JUSTICE

An interested audience listened to Evangelist C. S. Prout's lecture on the final reckoning of the nations, at the Gospel Pavilion, corner Harvard and Central, last night. By the use of many Bible texts the speaker proved conclusively the justice and love of God in the final punishment of the wicked who are not to be in a continual state of burning through endless ages. That there does not exist at the present time a hell of fire and brimstone to which sinners must go for purification and that the only lake of fire there will ever be will be located in point of time at the close of the one thousand years, were points made equally clear.

"If there is one subject that demands our study it is this one," said Mr. Prout. "While all are more or less familiar with the theories taught by olden time theologians who feared that sinners would never be converted unless persuaded by the awful dread of an endless hell, my sole purpose tonight is to show you what God says in His Word."

"A study of Daniel 2; Jeremiah 10:10; 25:31 and Matthew 13:24, shows conclusively that the nations existing at the second advent of Christ will be destroyed for the Lord has a controversy with the nations and will separate the good from the bad (Continued on Page 4)

CAMP CHRONICLES

GLENDALE TROOP NO. 2 SPENDS A QUIET SUNDAY AT CAMP ROBINSON

Sunday was spent by the boys of Troop No. 2 at Camp Robinson in resting and preparation for the big trip to the top of Baldy on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Frazee of Glendale and Mrs. Alvord visited the camp.

Charley Worley still holds the championship for falling into streams with his clothes on having fallen in six times.

A delightful camp fire was held in the evening when a fine story was told by Scoutmaster Robinson about old club foot, a real bear story of old Baldy in which he took part.

Breakfast on Monday was served at 4:30 and soon after seventeen scouts started up the Baldy trail. Nine scouts in charge of Scoutmaster Robinson reached the top. The other boys who were in charge of Assistant Scoutmaster H. B. Robinson, visited an old gold mine near the Lytle Creek divide. Both parties had a splendid snow fight. In places the snow was from twelve to seventeen feet deep.

A fine camp fire was enjoyed with refreshments of punch and cookies and toasted marshmallows.

LEGERTON—THOMAS

Miss Bessie Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Thomas, of 365 Edgeware Road, Los Angeles, was married to Victor A. Legerton, son of Mrs. M. E. Legerton, Wednesday evening, June 30th, at five o'clock. The marriage took place at Phoenix, Ariz., Miss Thomas having left Tuesday to join Mr. Legerton, who is connected with the Good-year Tire Company of that city. Mr. Legerton was formerly in business in Los Angeles.

Miss Thomas was once a resident of Glendale and a student in the Glendale High School, where she was popular in the younger set. Her sister, Mrs. N. A. Frazier, of North Maryland, entertained her in her home last Wednesday.

YOUNG MUSICIANS

RECITAL BY PUPILS OF MISS GERTRUDE CHAMPLAIN LARGELY ATTENDED

About seventy-five persons who enjoy good music were guests at a recital of the pupils of Miss Gertrude Champlain, which was given in the sales hall of the Glendale Phonograph & Piano Company on Brand boulevard Wednesday evening. All the numbers were excellent and many encores were called for. Of special interest was the response of Miss Mercedes Spong in the encore song, "Flowers' Eyes," the music of which was her own composition. The musical readings by Miss Evelyn Hunt with her sister, Miss Leona Hunt, at the piano, also won much applause. The program in detail follows:

Robert Kliebert, "March of the Wee Folks" (Gaynor).

Helen Daniels, "Rolling the Hoop" (Lerman), "The Happy Farmer" (Schuman-Lerman).

Junior Moore, "Three Little Chickens" (Grant Schaefer). Rowland Cole, "The Buzzing Bumble Bee" and "Ding Dong Bell" (Spaulding).

Leona Hunt, "Minuet" (Dussek). "Dance of the Gnomes" (Poldini). Jack Hileman, "Playing Soldier" (Dale).

M'Lee Cole, "Tale of the Bear" (Spaulding). Preston Hanning, "The Little Charmer" (Norris).

Velma Pearce, "Gathering the Fairy Folk" (Dingley-Matthews). Jack Hileman, Preston Hanning, Benjy Hogue, Trio (Spaulding).

Villa Bottsford, "Hide and Seek" (Schytte). Margaret Fenton, "Valse" (Chopin).

Roma Staub, Aragonaise from "Le Cid" (Massinet). Evelyn Hunt, Musical Readings—"Shadow March" and "Little Dutch Garden" (Gerber).

Cleo Redd, left hand selection, "Falling Water" (Truax). Mercedes Spong, "Evening Star" (Wagner).

Evelyn Horning, "Woodland Echoes" (Friml) and "Barchetta" (Nevin).

Winifred Parker, "Romance" (Rubinstein).

Mrs. J. W. Lindsay and son of 331 Salem St. are leaving today for an extended trip to the Yosemite region. W. E. Cleveland and family of Somerville, N. J., will occupy their home for the summer.

ADMINISTRATION DEFEAT

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE AT 'FRISCO FAVORS LEAGUE OF NATIONS BUT WITH RESERVATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—The Resolutions Committee of the Democratic national convention at a meeting ended at 3:30 o'clock this morning adopted a league of nations plank favoring the ratification of the Versailles peace treaty but stating the party does not oppose reservations making the treaty clearer or more specific regarding American obligations and sovereignty.

Senator Walsh of Montana led the fight which resulted in the clause declaring the party does not oppose such reservations being adopted. The full committee battled for four hours over the plank. Bryan and Senator Pomerene took an active part.

Administration leaders, while not attempting to conceal their disappointment, said they believed they could accept the plank without making any further fight.

The committee's action was a surprise as it had been expected the committee would adopt a plank supposed to have been written by President Wilson known as "the administration plank" which called for ratification without the dotting of an i or the crossing of a t.

Supporters of Walsh's plank maintained the committee's action was a defeat for the administration. They claimed the plank as adopted gives Democratic senators the right to vote for Senator Lodge's program of reservations. The vote on the plank was 32 to 18.

The president was notified by telegraph of the committee's action.

BRYAN TO ADDRESS CONVENTION

WILL ENDEAVOR TO WREST FROM ADMINISTRATION FORCES CONTROL OF CONVENTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—William Jennings Bryan is expected to make the fight of his career this afternoon when the Resolutions Committee reports the platform to the Democratic national convention.

He plans to address the convention from the floor in an effort to have a dry plank in the platform. Back of his address will be an effort by Bryan to wrest control of the convention from Bainbridge Colby, the administration leader. As the liquor question now stands, no plank at all has been adopted.

Resolutions Committee meetings have been carefully guarded and its members have been pledged not to divulge proceedings until final action should be taken.

The announcement that Bryan would speak from the floor created wide interest and the question of whether he or the administration forces will win is overshadowing the interest in the candidates. The Irish plank also remains to be decided upon by the party.

MIS-CARRIAGE OF POLITICAL PLANS

RE-ALIGNMENT ON QUESTION OF NOMINEE SAID TO BE TAKING PLACE AT CONVENTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—Over-night developments including the McAdoo demonstration and action on the league of nations plank seems to have shattered carefully laid political plans and brought about re-alignment on the question of a nominee.

Palmer's supporters admit that McAdoo may poll the biggest vote on the first balloting. Cox claims they have McAdoo blocked and that he cannot poll more than 500 votes.

The Edwards camp is gloomy over the failure thus far to put a "wet" plank into the platform.

A prominent cabinet member predicted today that the convention will deadlock and that someone will then shout: "Why not Wilson?" Then Wilson will be nominated and refuse to accept, after which he will practically name a candidate of his own choosing.

In the opinion of close political observers the candidates apparently stood today in the order of their chances of nomination as follows: McAdoo, Cox, Davis, Gerard, Marshall.

NOT ACCEPTABLE TO PRESIDENT

ADMINISTRATION CIRCLES IN WASHINGTON DISAPPROVE LEAGUE OF NATIONS PLANK

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Administration circles here today indicated the league of nations plank adopted by the Resolutions committee at San Francisco this morning would not be acceptable to the president.

ANARCHISTS WORK IN JAPAN

BOMB EXPLODED MONDAY IN DIET BUILDING, TOKIO, BELIEVED TO BE AIMED AT PREMIER HARA

TOKIO, July 1.—A bomb exploded in the Diet building on the morning of Monday the 28th. It is believed it was part of an attempt to assassinate Premier Hara. Little damage was done but great excitement was caused.

BLIX-HENNING

DAUGHTER OF HENRY HENNING WEDS CARLOS BLIX, A FIRE LADDIE

Wednesday evening about seven o'clock a wedding party appeared at the Presbyterian manse and called for the services of Dr. W. E. Edmonds. He was prompt in response and in a short time he had united in marriage Miss Edna Beatrice Henning and Charles A. Blix. Mrs. Le Tine of Douglas, Arizona, sister of the bride, attended her as matron of honor, and George H. Blix, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride wore a gown of golden colored lace over yellow silk.

Following the ceremony the party adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Henning at 203 East Elk Ave., where a wedding supper was served, covers being laid for Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Blix, George H. Blix, Mrs. Ferguson, mother of the groom, Mrs. Le Tine, her daughter, Miss Hazel Le Tine, Jack Rockwell and the host and hostess. The table was beautifully decorated for the event with ferns and pansies.

After the wedding party had taken a short auto ride around the city, Mr. and Mrs. Blix went to the home they have secured in the California Apartments on South Brand boulevard.

The groom is an employee of the city in the Fire Department. The bride has been in the employ of the local telephone company and both young people have quite a large circle of friends and well wishers.

OLD FRIENDS FROM TENNESSEE

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Norton are having great pleasure in the entertainment of old friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pinkney Lawrence of Nashville, Tenn. They arrived Monday after having been about three weeks on the way and taken in the Shriners' Conclave at Portland. Mr. Lawrence, who is a 33d degree Mason and Shrine Past Potentate, was a Nashville representative of the order at the convention. He is one of the most prominent business men of his city and will be here about a week. He will then return to Nashville leaving Mrs. Lawrence for a more extended visit as the guest of Mrs. Norton. They have toured California before, but it was previous to the advent of Mr. and Mrs. Norton in Glendale six years ago.

HORSESHOE CLUB SIGN

At the northeast corner of the Glendale Horseshoe Club's grounds at Broadway and Orange is a very striking sign, done in white cement, on the level ground. At the top is the word "Horseshoe" in a curved line, just underneath it a giant horseshoe, with bricks for calks, and below that the word "Club." The entire sign is fully 10 feet in height and is the work of Volney Philp.

AGENTS ORGANIZE

LOCAL INSURANCE AGENTS FORM GLENDALE INSURANCE CLUB

Most of the Glendale insurance agents met at the office of James W. Pearson, 128 North Brand boulevard, Wednesday evening, and organized what they are to call the Glendale Insurance Club. Calvin Whiting was elected president and James W. Pearson was elected secretary. The following agents have already joined the club:

B. & M. Realty Company. J. F. Stanford. Ezra F. Parker. W. E. Borthick. Glendale Realty Company. Doner & Hemenway. Endicott & Larson. Julius Kranz. Clem Moore. R. A. Salisbury. Sam P. Stoddard. H. E. Thomas. James Wyvell. Cole & Damerell. Burton-Chandler & George. J. P. Chandler. E. P. Hayward (Edwards & Wilkey Co.) King & Heal. E. H. Kerker. Calvin Whiting. Lessard Realty Company. W. S. Hammond. James W. Pearson.

It was decided to hold a dinner soon at which talks by noted speakers will be heard. Much interest was evident and most of the agents seemed eager to have an organization such as this started.

FIFTH NIGHT

MEMBERS OF CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH ENJOY SUPPER AND SOCIAL

Every recurring fifth Wednesday night in a month, and that means one in every quarter year, is set apart by the membership of Central Christian Church as a get-together occasion for fellowship, better acquaintance and a royal good time. Last evening fully 100 people gathered for this purpose, mostly members of the congregation. After a most appetizing meal served by a volunteer committee of ladies, all not engaged in clearing away tables and dishes repaired to the church auditorium, where Rev. Cole led in a prayer meeting service. By the time this was concluded the supper committee had gotten through their work and were present. An informal program of songs, instrumental and vocal music was then given, which was equal in interest and enjoyableness to many a high-priced performance. Miss Lucille Thompson, accompanied by her sister Avis, gave two violin solos as the opening number, and though encores would not respond. Miss Harriet Baggs of Des Moines, Iowa, who is visiting in Glendale, read, in inimitable style, "Ma's Auto Ride," which so pleased the audience that a second reading was insisted on, which was equally entertaining. The next number was a violin solo by Miss Beatrice Bolen, accompanied by Miss Fern Peters on the piano, and so beautifully was it rendered that an encore was insisted upon by the delighted audience.

When Miss Bertha Jackson was announced as to give a reading next, there was instant and hearty applause for this prime favorite of the congregation. "The Abandoned Elopement," as given by Miss Jackson, was so irresistibly funny that an encore was insisted on. Another was demanded when this was given, then still another, but Miss Jackson begged off until later in the evening. A beautiful vocal solo by Mrs. Cleo Stoler, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Musser and on the violin by Miss Evangeline Quackenbush, was so heart-stirring that a second number was insisted on by the delighted hearers. Mrs. Calvin Whiting, who is musical director for the church and a reader of undeniable talent, gave "The Young Bride's First Visit to the Butcher Shop" and as an encore "Him, Her, Them." Both were rich in humor and perfectly delivered. Violin solos by Miss Evangeline Quackenbush, the second in response to a persistent encore, were very pleasing to all. Miss Jackson closed the entertainment with a reading in negro dialect.

The every Wednesday evening church night supper, followed by devotional and business meetings, also the quarterly fifth night programs, were added to the church life at the suggestion of Pastor C. A. Cole and they are proving to be very popular.

In a short address just before the program opened Rev. Cole spoke approvingly of the loving fellowship and harmony prevailing in the congregation and urged further cultivation of the social side. "The more we play together the closer our bond of union in the Lord," was his declaration. He announced that 65 persons had been added to the membership in the half year just closing.

BRIDGE PARTY

MRS. HELEN CAMPBELL AND MISS MINTYRE ENTERTAIN AT CARDS

A very pretty party at which three tables were arranged for bridge was given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Helen Campbell and Miss Annie McIntyre at the Campbell residence at 718 East Harvard street. It was in honor of Mrs. George McCloud, who has come to Glendale from New Brunswick, Canada. Other guests were Mrs. Lester Jones, Mrs. Hilliard of Los Angeles, Mrs. C. O. Pulliam, Mrs. John Allen Legge, Mrs. East, Miss Lorraine Mitchell, Miss Annie MacIntyre, Mrs. Maurice Bonceaux, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, Mrs. A. C. MacIntyre, mother of the hostesses. Following play delicious refreshments were served. The prize for high score was a beautiful handmade handkerchief with tatting edge, which was won by Mrs. Lester Jones.

The hostess had beautifully decorated her home with Cecil Brunner roses and French marigolds. The invitation list included Mrs. C. E. Norton, Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, Mrs. A. A. MacIntyre and Miss Myrtle Pulliam.

Personals

The Ladies' Guild of St. Mark's is meeting today at the church.

LeRoy Bosserman has gone to San Francisco on a business trip and will not be back until after the Fourth.

Mrs. Fred C. Richardson of 1300 South Central avenue is spending the week with friends in Ontario.

Chris Orff has sold his place at 331 Myrtle to a Mr. Reed of South Glendale and will move to another place he owns, at 465 Milford.

Mrs. Frank Morrissey of Sierra Madre was in Glendale yesterday visiting her parents, A. F. Webster and wife, 205 East Acacia avenue.

John M. Ray will leave next Tuesday on his business and pleasure trip to Milwaukee, Wis., going by way of Memphis, Tenn., to visit relatives and old friends.

Dr. Paine-Jackman has moved her office from 125 1/2 North Brand Blvd. to her home at 515 N. Kenwood street as being a more convenient location for her at the present time.

Mrs. Peter Ferry and children and Mrs. A. J. Chappius and daughter, Dorothy, spent Monday at Ocean Park and had a delightful day. Mr. Ferry is still detained by his big job at Wilmington.

Mrs. M. J. Porter and daughter, Helen, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Willisford. Mrs. Porter has just come from one of the Los Angeles hospitals and is confined to her bed, but will be up in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin and family left this morning for Coronado Beach, San Diego, where they have secured a cottage for two months, though they may conclude to stay but one. They are looking forward to a very pleasant outing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barton and son are camping at Forest Home and are likely to be there for a couple of weeks. They have a full camping outfit and as they have been there before and know all the advantages of the situation they are likely to have a good time.

Leslie McReynolds has gone to Sequoia National Park in the Forest Reserve for a vacation outing and his mother plans to join him the first of the week. She has leased her house on North Kenwood for the summer to parties who will take possession Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Yarrick of 347 West Wilson and family had expected to leave ere this for a beach outing at Pacific Grove, but their son, Burnell, came down with the measles and is only now able to be up. They are hoping to get away the first of next week.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Arnold of 211 East Lomita are entertaining Mrs. Arnold's brother, Clyde B. Rogers, his wife and two children, little Helen and baby Margaret. They have come up from the Imperial Valley. They will also visit Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Brant at 217 North Kenwood.

The Epworth League of the West Glendale M. E. Church held a lawn social on the lawn of the church Monday evening. About 35 young people were present and the evening was delightfully spent in playing games, baking wienies, etc. The lawn was lighted by Japanese lanterns, which gave a very artistic effect.

Mrs. J. W. Stauffacher of 721 Orange Grove avenue has this week been entertaining Mrs. J. H. Burma and son, John Harmon Burma, of Dubuque, Iowa, and Miss Emma Burma of Bristow, Iowa. Mrs. Burma and Mrs. Stauffacher are sisters and the Burmas are spending the summer in Long Beach.

Mrs. Arthur C. Brown of 201 W. Milford street is having the pleasure of entertaining a niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Willoughby, and their little daughter, from Central City, Nebraska. They will be here for several weeks. Meredith Brown, son of the house, is in Bakersfield visiting his old chum, Stafford Wilde.

Mrs. J. W. Montfort, of Oklahoma, her mother Mrs. Strawn, and her son and daughter-in-law from Stanford, Cal., have leased the home of Mrs. E. M. Bales, at 323 North Jackson street, for a month. They are enjoying Southern California very much and Mrs. Montfort admits she would not object to making it her permanent home. She and her mother expect to return to Oklahoma in the fall.

Mrs. Augusta Haeske of Redondo Beach, a former resident of Glendale, has been the guest this week of Mrs. Nina Richards of Virginia Place and has been the recipient of much attention from her old friends who have thronged the Richards home to see her. Mrs. Haeske is the mother of Mrs. James Gregory and is very well known in W. R. C. circles, both here and other parts of the county. She and her hostess were luncheon guests on Wednesday of Mrs. R. L. Milligan of 116 East Park avenue, president of the local Woman's Relief Corps.

The Relation of Health To The Gospel

TONIGHT

—7:45—

—AT THE—

Gospel Pavilion

Corner Central and Harvard

Welcome To All!

Mr. Blankenship of Harvard City has sold his property at 422 North Adams to a Mr. Cochran who will occupy it as a home and make extensive improvements.

Rev. W. Y. L. Davis, who is District Superintendent of the Pasadena District, preached in the West Glendale M. E. Church last Sunday morning. Mrs. Lee Hawkins, of Gardena, a highly cultured soprano soloist, sang two very beautiful solos which were greatly appreciated by the fine audience. At the Quarterly Conference, following the morning service, very satisfactory reports were given of the work of the year. There have been 40 additions to the church in the past six months. The pastor, Rev. W. W. Cookman, was unanimously invited to return for a third year.

Frank Conover and wife were in Glendale yesterday visiting a cousin, Mrs. M. G. Musser, of 564 West Colorado. They returned to the United States last April from an East Africa mission station for the Friends Church, where they had been for seven years. They have a year's furlough and then will go back to their work gladly. They have been visiting Mrs. Conover's parents at Lindsay until quite recently, when they came down to Whittier to attend the convention of Friends held there. They will soon go back to Lynnvile, Iowa, their old home, for a long visit.

RETURNED FROM NORTH

Dr. Paine-Jackman, who returned from the Osteopathic Convention in San Francisco not long ago, declares it was a splendid meeting and that the osteopaths were made to realize that their numbers are growing and their strength increasing in other ways. About five hundred delegates were in attendance and practically all the western states were represented. There were clinics as well as lectures and much of interest to all members of the profession. One of the treats of the convention was a barbecue dinner up the coast among the redwoods, which was much enjoyed.

Dr. Jackman is today entertaining Mrs. Eleanor West and her daughter, Margaret West, of Orange, Cal.

PURCHASE CONSUMMATED

Mrs. E. W. Kinney, who has been heading the committee appointed some months ago to negotiate for building lots for the Tuesday Afternoon Club, reports that more than the required two-thirds vote has been secured by the circulation of petitions and officers of the club are to meet today with the owner of the lots at the corner of Lexington and Brand, which the club is buying and papers are to be signed and placed in escrow with one of the banks until the deal can be completed.

Mrs. G. Phillips and Miss Eva Daniels of 324 West Colorado entertained with a dinner party on Wednesday evening in honor of their uncle, Nat. Desky, and his daughter, Katherine, of Denver, and I. H. Frankel of Utah. Those present were Victor W. Daniels, Harold Phillips and Reda Phillips. In the evening games and music were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Crawford of 809 South Central avenue entertained a few friends Wednesday with a musical evening, the guest list including Mr. and Mrs. Eustace B. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fryor, and Ed. Moniot. Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Crawford sang and Ed Moniot entertained with fine banjo numbers. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Special Activity Pins of the sort bestowed for credits covering the full four years' course were given to Dan Campbell for literature and art work in connection with the school paper, and to Frances Gauntlet for Art and Literature in the same connection when final honors were bestowed at the close of the school year. Miss Mueller of the Art Department declares both honestly earned this special recognition and that they have reason to prize the pins highly.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY SURPRISE

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hurd of 110 South Adams street were pleasantly surprised by a number of their friends Wednesday evening, who gathered to celebrate their twenty-second wedding anniversary. A beautiful bouquet of Matilija poppies was presented them in honor of the occasion and dainty refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Stees, Mrs. A. C. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall and Miss Weda Stoney. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing cards.

WHITNEYS MOVE

Dr. H. T. Whitney and wife are moving tomorrow from 1134 E. Lexington Drive, where they have been living for a few months with a son, to a little cottage they just bought at 316 West Elk avenue. Dr. Whitney, who was on the mission field in East China, near the coast, for more than 40 years, is keeping in close touch with events happening in that section which is so dear to his heart. He is considerably concerned over the reports of the fierce fight the poorer Chinese are making against the profiteers in rice, China's staple food. The price has soared to $15.50 and $16 a picul, which is 133 1-3 pounds. This is an advance of considerably more than 1000 per cent since before the war and it means starvation to thousands of the poorer people, hence there are many fierce riots and some of the profiteers have been roughly handled.

bad in the day of judgment. If as stated in 1 Peter 4:17 judgment must begin at the House of God, what shall be the end of them that obey not the Gospel of God? God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life. Therefore while the reward of the just is everlasting the wicked are not punished everlastingly but perish.

"God does not hate sinners but He does hate sin; and men and women who love sin more than they love God must take the inevitable end of sin, for God will have a clean universe eventually; and those who refuse to separate themselves from sin must perish with it.

"God's utter abhorrence of sin is proven by the sacrifice of Heaven's best gift in the person of Christ on the cross to pay the penalty of sin, that through faith in Him men may not lose eternal life.

"Neither Satan and his wicked angels nor the wicked dead are now suffering the torments of hell for The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished; and the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, He hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day: 2 Peter 2:3; Jude 6.

"Every one will be punished according to his works, the deeds done in the body. Revelation 22:12; 20: 12; Romans 2:5.

"The destruction of the wicked will be complete. Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness and their blossom shall go up as dust. The wicked shall perish and the enemies of the Lord shall be as the fat of lambs; into smoke shall they consume away. Nahum 1:10; Isaiah 5:24; Psalms 37:20; Obadiah 16;
Isaiah 47:14.

"The devil will also be destroyed in the same manner for he shall be brought to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all the righteous.
Ezekiel 28:18.

"The expressions 'eternal fire' and 'everlasting punishment' were shown to mean eternal and everlasting in their effects, as in the case of Sodom and Gomorrah which were said to have suffered the vengeance of eternal fire in Jude 7, while in 2 Peter 2:6 they are said to be turned into ashes. The fires which burn up sin are unquenchable in that they will continue as long as there is anything left to burn. The devil and his angels, sinners and sin will be reduced to smoke and ashes and the same fires will purify the earth and make it fit for the dwelling of the righteous.

The speaker made it clear that God is love and justice and not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. It is possible for all to be saved for Christ paid the penalty for each one.
But one must exercise the power of choice and the power of the will in resisting temptations.

"If God had destroyed sin in the beginning the angels who are watching the course of Satan would have had opportunity to declare God unjust, but after thousands of years of development holy angels and the inhabitants of other worlds are fully convinced of the justice of God in the destruction of sin and sinners."

The Glendale National Bank

offers you something for nothing.
We still give you the benefit and convenience of a checking account free of charge. We give you a bank book and a check book; we keep your accounts and do your bookkeeping, balancing your book and returning your cancelled checks on your demand. This service costs you nothing and it saves you money. You don't spend so freely when you pay by check as when you have the cash in your pocket, and you never pay a bill the second time when you have a cancelled check as a receipt.

Why Shouldn't You Have a Checking Account Here?

Yes, And The Man who can make up his mind will get plenty of help. He'll get plenty of help from us when he wants to move his goods. The right sort of transfer service and storage facilities at prices we're not ashamed to ask and you are thoroughly willing to pay.

WHEN IT'S YOUR MOVE
